

When: 11/12/2023

Where: Most Holy Redeemer

Who: 26 attended, per sign-in sheet

What: Call to order and opening prayer were led by Deacon Jack Baker . This was followed by a presentation on St. Frances Cabrini and Saint Cecilia. The minutes from the October general meeting were read by the recording secretary, Rachel Fierro. Gale Best, treasurer, reported on CCW funds. As of the meeting, CCW had $332.80 in the bank. Dues and a donation for food were collected at the November meeting and will be included in the totals read at next month's meeting.

Next, committees made their reports. The membership committee report was given by Pat Meisner. The membership committee asked for all members to remember to reach out to ladies that they see or talk to who have missed a meeting so that they know they were missed and that we would love to see them again. Peg Baker spoke about the Anointing of the Sick mass held on Nov 5th that was organized by the wellness committee. Mary Ellen Simmons is heading up sending cards to residents in nursing homes and the homebound. The wellness committee is planning to offer prayer after the 10:30 am mass for those in need as their next project. Vera Akpagbugha is heading up this project. The food committee asks that members bring cookies for a cookie swap at the next general meeting in December. Irma Coleman gave an update on upcoming events for the Fundraising and Events committee. These included the Angel Tree in December and Chili Cook Off on January 13th. Tailgate and/or football decorations are needed for this event as well as silent auction donations.

The 50/50 raffle drawing was held and won by Ms. Joy, who generously donated the winnings back to CCW. The next meeting was set for December 10th, and a special prayer for the sick was given by Vera Akpagbugha. The meeting was closed in prayer by Peg Baker.
