

When: 3/10/24

Where: Most Holy Redeemer

Who: to be determined

What: Call to order and opening prayer were offered by Deacon Jack Baker. Following prayer, Deacon Jack gave a presentation on St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, who founded the daughters of charity, as well as St. Josephine Bakita and St. Katherine Drexel. Following this talk about some of our wonderful female saints, Deacon Jack spoke on the ministry of the lector, which he oversees for our parish.

The minutes from the February general meeting were read by the recording secretary, Rachel Fierro. Following this, Gale Best, treasurer, spoke about finances. There will be a full accounting update at the next monthly meeting.

Next, a discussion was held about making cards to hand out at the Easter services to visitors to invite families to come back to our parish. Irma Coleman agreed to head up this project.

With the Easter Egg Hunt coming up, the CCW took a moment to thank Peggy Ritz for her contributions and encouragement to take up this project the previous year, in 2023. After the meeting, ladies from the CCW stayed to stuff the donated eggs with candy.

There would be no meeting in April as the DCCW convention would conflict with our regular general meeting date.

The 50/50 raffle drawing was held and won by Leah. In total, $68 were collected, and Leah donated $20 back to the CCW. Vera Akpagbugha offered a prayer for the sick followed by closing prayer offered by Deacon Jack.
