Notes from the November meeting were read by Recording Secretary Rachel Fierro followed by a Treasurer report by Gale Best. As of this report, we had 26 paid members.

Vice-President Irma Coleman gave an update on the Angel Tree project. We had 145 tags for needy children this year. Gifts would be distributed on 12-20-24. In addition, CCW members brought decorated small live or artificial trees that would go to our homebound and nursing home seniors.

The CCW also discussed the upcoming Chili Cook-off, which was held on 1/11/2025.

On Dec 5th, the CCW would light the Advent candle at the 8 AM mass. CCW members were invited to attend and help light the candle at that mass.

Karen Bound is looking for write-ups, pictures, and information about events held by CCW from May 2023 onwards. Karen will be putting together this section of CCW history as the CCW Historian. Please give these items to Karen no later than March 2025 so that it can be displayed at the April CCW meeting.

There was a 50/50 raffle drawing at the conclusion of this meeting. The Patrick and Carrie Knezevich won $52.50 in the drawing.

Vera Akpagbugha then offered a prayer for the sick, followed by closing prayer.

A special note - This was the last meeting that Deacon Jack Baker would be present for. He will be missed greatly by the entire Most Holy Redeemer community, and especially the Most Holy Redeemer CCW. We will continue to appreciate the memory of Deacon Jack and Peg Baker, and pray for their souls.
